

UNITED NATIONS GLOBAL COMPACT & BSR (BUSINESS FOR SOCIAL RESPONSIBILITY)

Sustainable Supply Chains
Case Examples Template

Please fill out the following template with information about a promising practice you would like to highlight for UNGC / BSR sustainable supply chain guidance.

A project team from the UNGC office and BSR will compile the examples and edit for standardization.

All examples submitted will be profiled on the UN Global Compact website. Some cases will be considered for inclusion in the implementation guide.

Examples should be submitted to Ms. Cecilie Hultmann, at hultmann@un.org (+47-47-28-15-09) by 30 April 2010.

TEMPLATE

1. Company information:

Name of company:

Sector:

Country of origin:

Name and contact details for contact person:

2. Subject (Please select one):

___ 1) Managing supply chain sustainability internally (i.e. executive support & business case, setting goals and objectives, awareness raising & training, roles & responsibilities, management structures, incentives etc.)

___ 2) Engaging with suppliers (i.e. setting expectations, determining scope, risk assessment, monitoring & auditing, training & education, remediation & capacity building, codes, worker empowerment etc.)

___ 3) Engaging in partnerships, industry collaboration and collective action initiatives

___ 4) Other (please describe)

3. Issue

- ___ 1) General
- ___ 2) Human Rights
- ___ 3) Labour standards
- ___ 4) Environment
- ___ 5) Anti-corruption

4. Context

[Please provide 2-3 sentences explaining the background for developing the program or activity - what the challenge was / what you were trying to solve / why you undertook this program or activity and what the objective has been or is.]

5. Description of program or activity

[Please provide a brief paragraph (maximum 1 page) explaining the program or activity and how it was implemented.]

6. Lessons learned

[Please provide 2-3 sentences explaining insights gained from implementing the program or activity with a focus on what you would or wouldn't do the same.]

7. Impact

[Please provide 2-3 sentences summarizing the benefit of this program for your company]

8. Links to more information