Mr. Georg Kell
Executive Director
UN Global Compact Office

Respectable Mr. Georg Kell,

I feel very honored to have been invited to participate in UNGC Sudan Network Meeting. Hereby, on behalf of CNPC Nile Company and in the name of myself, I would like to express my heart-felt thanks and sincere respect to UN Global Compact.

At this meeting, we were very happy to conduct direct exchanges of views, communication and mutual learning with enterprises, governments, NGOs, academic institutions and labor organizations from Sudan and other countries. Through this event, the participants from various sides have deepened their mutual understanding. As for us, the meeting participants started to have a better understanding of social responsibilities undertaken by CNPC Nile Company in Sudan, and CNPC Nile Company also became better aware of the actual needs of Sudan localities.

CNPC Nile Company does attach great importance to this valuable opportunity of leaning and exchanges of views, and we are supportive to UNGC principle of responsible investment in weak/conflict-prone countries. CNPC Nile Company is going to continue rendering our support to the construction of UNGC network in Sudan and take an active part in the activities of the network, further understand and learn the conflict sensitive practices in conflict prone countries stipulated by UNGC, proactively utilize the multi-stakeholder and collective network platform to continuously improve and enhance our own business ethics, social responsibility concepts and operation modes.

CNPC Nile Company is willing to join hands with stakeholders to make our due contributions to win-win and harmonious development in the region.

Sincerely yours,

Qin Anjiang
