Raising the Bar: Leading Sustainable Business in 2008

ACCSR's 2nd Annual Conference

Reserve the date in your calendar

Date: Wednesday 20th February, 2008

Time: 8.30am - 5.30pm

Venue: Westpac Banking Corporation Conference Centre,
275 Kent Street, Sydney

Hear from leaders of business, government and civil society about the major international and domestic trends and policy developments affecting corporate social responsibility and sustainability.

The Australian Centre for Corporate Social Responsibility is partnering with Westpac Banking Corporation and the United Nations Global Compact for the second time to present our annual conference on corporate social responsibility and sustainability.

The UN Global Compact is the world's largest CSR initiative. Endorsed by the 2007 G8 Summit and by leading businesses around the world at the Leaders Summit held in July 2007, the Compact asks participants to commit to principles that advance the environment, human rights, labour and anti-corruption. This conference will provide practical insights into the challenges of leading sustainable business in these areas.

Confirmed speakers include:

- Gavin Jennings MLC, Minister for Environment, Climate Change and Innovation (VIC)
- Graeme Innes, Human Rights Commissioner
- Gareth Edgecombe, Managing Director, Coca-Cola Australia
- Professor David Kinley, Chair in Human Rights Law, Sydney University
